

GEORGE CAVE: TRYING TO CLIMB IN TAJIKISTAN

at the BMC London area meeting

+ raffle prize kindly donated by Cotswold Outdoor

In 2015 George Cave and four friends set out to try and prove themselves as master mountaineers. Between flooding their 4x4 in the river, getting kicked out of Russia without a visa and teaching an army of Tajik children the dance sequence to the macarena they had as many adventures off the mountains as they did on them.
