

During three weeks in Kyrgyzstan a team of six British climbers forded endless rivers, perfected bread baking on a gas hob, forgot which way up to hold the Union flag, learnt to drink vodka Kyrgyz style and built the finest latrine the valley had ever seen.

Along the way they also climbed alpine style to summit seven previously unclimbed mountains on the Kyrgyz-Chinese border up to 5200m in height.

Bristol Djangart Expedition 2013

BREAD, CHESS & MOUNTAINS

George Cave

BMC
Midlands
Area Meeting

Old Edwardians Sport Club
Streetsbrook Rd
Solihull, B90 3PE

Wed 4th Jun @ 8pm
Refreshments provided

