3. Update from Southern Sandstone

Adrian Paisley, Chair Harrison's Rocks Management Group, reported on recent open meeting (report available on the area section of the BMC website - <https://community.thebmc.co.uk/Event.aspx?view=report&id=4287>).

- Looking to hold an event/"festival" in 2022. Questions were raised at the Sandstone Open Meeting held the night before regarding how should this be promoted given concerns about use by too many people without appropriate knowledge? Event proposal was to emphasize best practice. Intention to do this in May/June i.e. at start of summer season.
- Wire swaging between bolts removed. Now asking climbers to rig their own anchors. Need to update BMC information films. Further information can be found here: <https://www.thebmc.co.uk/changes-to-southern-sandstone-bolted-anchors>
- Parking still a problem. Encouragement to members to check the Regional Access Database.
- There is a need to update Sandstone code of practice. A working group has been established who are looking at this.
- Next HRMG meeting on 25 October.
- Harrison's tree felling/maintenance – next work will be carried out below The Niblick area. HRMG will schedule a volunteers work day following this work. Adrian asked members to consider volunteering.
- Ongoing repair of resin work by Graham Adcock.
- Stone Farm – 5 new pairs of bolts have been installed.
- Bowles – open again. Bowles considering work to repair ground erosion.
- Eridge – currently voluntary suspension of climbing because of overuse. Eridge is a SSSI. HRMG invited Sussex Wildlife Trust to discuss and inspect repairs elsewhere. SWT is now in consultation with Natural England about possible repairs.

- High Rocks - £12.50 per visit for day ticket.
- Tunbridge Wells DC have asked for help from HRMG at the Happy Valley site.

CS thanked Adrian for his report (copy of report on BMC website). No questions.

CS added National Trust has suspended access to Skeleton Ridge at the Needles. Marti Hallett (South West Access Rep) is working to resolve this and is hopeful the suspension will be lifted at the start of the new season.

CS reported on BMC access seminar. Key points: increase in numbers using National Parks however there has been an increase in the diversity of those enjoying the outdoors; challenges of poor parking and fly-camping; more climbers; people getting too close to and disturbing seal pups; Ash dieback will mean a 50%-80% loss of Ash trees; BMC access and conservation team are proposing ways to increase support to access area volunteers.

4. Area Reps update

4.1 Clubs

No report (Tim Croker was stepping down as area clubs rep). No questions about clubs.

4.2 Hillwalking

Fabrizio Scaglione invited members to complete BMC hill walking survey – explanatory article on BMC website. FS reported that Dartmoor is the only place in England where wild camping is currently permitted. Because of inappropriate use there was a proposal to introduce bye-laws to regulate this. The bye-laws were amended following discussion with BMC SW area representatives.

FS reported on the upcoming Chilterns walking festival.

4.3 Youth

Tanya Sage the Area Youth Climbing Series Coordinator reported:

Two Youth climbing competition rounds completed. Average of 90-150 participants at each round. BMC Covid protocol applies (so youth have to submit selfies with LFT results). Measures to reduce crowding welcome. Huge enthusiasm of participants. C 15 volunteers needed at each round. TS thanked the volunteers.

No questions.

5. Find Your Adventure

7. Members Council update

CS outlined the vision event series. These would be quarterly on each of the four BMC activity areas (rock climbing, indoor climbing, hill walking and mountaineering). The intention is that following the vision event, the outcomes would explore further in open-forums for all members.

Since National Council evolved to Members' Council, councillors led by Andy Syme (chair) have been implementing ways and strategies for the council to operate more effectively ensuring it is meeting the objectives in its Terms of Reference.

Amongst other things, MC was considering how best to increase youth representation in BMC, possibly via a youth panel.
